

Because of you...

"Every contribution whether it be through monetary donation, your time volunteering, or any other investment, we all are thankful for everything UD's investors give. Those investments have helped build opportunities for not only me but for future UD students."

-Bradley Buechel (C'23)

Where is your hometown?

Kewaskum, WI

What is your major?

I am a double major in both Business and Marketing.

What are you involved in?

I am on the UD Men's Golf team. I am also on the UD Investment Club board, and a former member of the Wendt Character Initiative and Spartan Start.

What is your favorite thing about UD?

I was never afraid to reach out and ask for help, there is an amazing network of students, professors, coaches, and faculty that all want to lend a helping hand.

What/Who makes UD special?

The people. Everyone here at the University of Dubuque helps make this place feel special.
